

DAO DOOR PRIVATE LIMITED

June 1, 2023

Dear Sir/Madam,

I write this letter with great pleasure to recommend Mr. Ghanshyam Mahesh Bhat for any future endeavors he may pursue. Ghanshyam was an intern with DAO DOOR PRIVATE LIMITED (a subsidiary of DAOLENS INC) from October 10, 2022, to January 31, 2023.

During his time with us, Ghanshyam quickly became an invaluable asset to our team. His exceptional analytical skills and relentless curiosity for learning made him stand out among his peers. Always proactive, he took the initiative to participate in various projects and contributed significantly to their successful execution.

Ghanshyam was particularly adept at solving complex problems, which was a testament to his impressive technical acumen. He displayed a profound understanding of various programming languages and demonstrated an extraordinary ability to apply this knowledge in real-world scenarios.

His communication skills were also commendable. Despite being an intern, he had the confidence and interpersonal skills to liaise effectively with both the team and clients. He had a knack for explaining complex information in simple, understandable terms, making him a popular figure among our clients. In addition to his technical and communication skills, Ghanshyam displayed a high level of professionalism and dedication to his work. He showed an impressive level of commitment, often going above and beyond his regular duties to ensure the success of the projects he was assigned to.

Perhaps what set Ghanshyam apart the most was his remarkable ability to adapt and learn quickly. Our field requires constant learning and adaptation to keep up with the latest technological advancements, and Ghanshyam proved that he is well equipped to handle these demands. He showed a constant desire to improve and expand his skills, often taking the initiative to participate in extra training and development activities.

In conclusion, Ghanshyam's intellect, work ethic, and adaptability make him a superb candidate for any position in the tech industry. He is a bright, hardworking, and dedicated professional who I believe will be an asset to any organization fortunate enough to have him.

I recommend Ghanshyam Mahesh Bhat without reservation and am confident that he will exceed your expectations just as he did ours.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Yours Sincerely,

For Dao Door Private Limited
